TAKE NOTE

PARAMEDIC SERVICES WEEK

During the past week of May 17 to 23, we thanked St. Albert's paramedics for their service in responding to emergencies and providing critical pre-hospital care to our community when we need them the most.

ST. ALBERT PLACE CONSTRUCTION

From June 2 to August 31, the south entrance to St. Albert Place and six parking stalls behind the building will be temporarily closed due to utility work. For St. Albert Place construction information, visit stalbert.ca and search St. Albert Place Lifecycle Project. For available downtown public parking, visit stalbert.ca and search Downtown Parking Map.

NEW PHOTO ENFORCEMENT LOCATION

The City of St. Albert continues to collaborate with the Government of Alberta, the St. Albert RCMP and our photo enforcement contractor on automated traffic enforcement in school, playground and constructions zones.

The construction site on Ray Gibbon Drive will now have automated traffic enforcement at the following locations:

- Ray Gibbon Drive southbound at/near Giroux Road
- Ray Gibbon Drive northbound at/near McKenney Avenue

Learn more at stalbert.ca and search photo enforcement.
