

United Church

In 1954 representatives of 11 denominations met to discuss the formation of a new Protestant church in St. Albert. It was believed that the concept of unity embraced by the United Church would best serve the needs of all Protestants in St. Albert. Initial services were held in the Club Mocombo dance hall. The St. Albert United Church building was opened in 1957.