APPLICATION AND INTERPRETATION

- 3.1 This bylaw shall apply to all meetings of council and committee of the whole.
- 3.2 Council may make this bylaw applicable to other council committees, either in whole or in part.
- 3.3 Where council makes this bylaw applicable to a council committee, it shall apply with all necessary modifications, and
- a. any reference to the mayor shall be treated as a reference to the chair of the council committee;
 - b. any reference to a councillor shall be treated as a reference to a member of the council committee; and
 - c. any reference to council shall be treated as a reference to the committee.
- 3.4 To the extent that a matter is not dealt with in the Act or this bylaw, council shall have regard to Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.
- 3.5 The precedence of the rules governing the procedures of council is:
- a. the Act;
 - b. other provincial legislation;
 - c. this bylaw; and
 - d. Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.
- 3.6 Council may waive all or part of the provisions of this bylaw for a meeting, if the councillors present vote unanimously to do so.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETINGS

- 4.1 Council shall hold an organizational meeting each year not later than two weeks after the third Monday in October.
- 4.2 At the organizational meeting, council shall establish, by resolution, for the forthcoming year:

- a. the roster for deputy mayor for a two-month period on a rotating basis;
 - b. the dates, time of commencement and place of the regular council meetings; and
 - c. the date of the next organizational meeting; and
 - d. the edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised that will be used by council.
- 4.3 Notwithstanding section 4.2 b., if all councillors are not in attendance at the organizational meeting, the scheduling of regular council meetings shall be postponed until the next council meeting at which all councillors are in attendance, and council shall establish the date, time of commencement and place of the next council meeting.

INAUGURAL MEETING

- 5.1 The first meeting immediately following a general municipal election shall be called the inaugural meeting.
- 5.2 Each member of council shall take the prescribed oath of office as the first order of business at the inaugural meeting.
- 5.3 Until the mayor has taken the oath of office, the chief administrative officer shall chair the inaugural meeting.
- 5.4 At the inaugural meeting, each member of council shall affirm the Code of Conduct as approved from time to time by council.
- 5.5 The mayor may deliver an inaugural address at the inaugural meeting.
- 5.6 The first organizational meeting after an inaugural meeting shall either occur at the next meeting date following the inaugural meeting or immediately following the inaugural meeting.

COUNCIL SEATING

- 6.1 The mayor shall occupy the seat at the centre of the council table.
- 6.2 The seats of councillors shall be chosen by lot prior to the inaugural meeting.
- 6.3 Council may reallocate the seating for councillors by lot at any time by majority vote of council.

QUORUM

- 7.1 Quorum of council is a majority of members of council.
- 7.2 If quorum is not achieved within 15 minutes after the time the meeting was scheduled to begin, the chief administrative officer will document the names of those who are present, and the meeting will be adjourned and rescheduled.
- 7.3 If at any time during a meeting the quorum is lost, the meeting shall be recessed and if quorum is not achieved again within 15 minutes, the meeting shall be deemed to be adjourned.

DUTIES OF OFFICIALS

Duties of the Mayor

- 8.1 The mayor shall:
 - a. open council meetings;
 - b. chair council meetings;
 - c. chair meetings of the nominating committee;
 - d. preserve order and decorum in council meetings;
 - e. rule on all questions of procedure;
 - f. ensure that each member of council who wishes to speak on a debatable motion is granted the opportunity to do so;
 - g. determine the speaking order when two or more members of council or others wish to speak; and
 - h. decide who, aside from members of council, may address council.
- 8.2 The mayor is an ex officio member, by virtue of office, of all council committees, unless a bylaw establishing a committee expressly states that the mayor is not an ex officio member of that committee.
- 8.3 If the mayor is present at a committee meeting by virtue of office:
 - a. the mayor has all the rights and privileges of the other committee members including the right to make motions and vote; but

- b. the mayor shall not be counted to determine quorum.

Duties of the Deputy Mayor

- 9.1 Unless otherwise determined by council, during the twelve month period following the organizational meeting, each councillor shall serve as deputy mayor for a two-month period, as assigned to that councillor at the organizational meeting.
- 9.2 The deputy mayor shall chair council meetings when the mayor is absent or unable to act as mayor and shall have all the powers and responsibilities of the mayor under this bylaw during the mayor's absence or inability to act.
- 9.3 The deputy mayor may chair meetings of committee of the whole when delegated by the mayor.
- 9.4 In the absence or inability of the mayor and deputy mayor to act, the next councillor scheduled to be deputy mayor on the roster shall chair council meetings and shall have all the powers and responsibilities of the mayor under this bylaw.

Duties of the Chief Administrative Officer

- 10.1 The chief administrative officer shall, subject to the Act and the City Manager Bylaw:
 - a. provide council with information and advice with respect to the operation of the City;
 - b. when requested, provide information and advice to the mayor and council on procedural matters in council;
 - c. record minutes of the meetings of council and provide secretariat functions for council meetings;
 - d. receive recommendations for resolutions and make them available to each members of council; and
 - e. review proposed bylaws to ensure compliance with this bylaw and to advise the proponent and council of the existence of complementary and conflicting provisions in other bylaws.

THE CONDUCT OF A COUNCIL MEETING

Agenda

- 11.1 There shall be a committee of council called the agenda committee established by bylaw. The agenda committee will be responsible for determination of the content of the proposed agenda for upcoming council meetings and the order of agenda items on the proposed agendas.
- 11.2 The agenda shall be circulated to members of council no less than 5 days prior to the council meeting.
- 11.3 The first order of business at any council meeting shall be consideration of the proposed agenda and adoption of it, subject to:
 - a. approval by council of the agenda as presented; or
 - b. approval by council for amendment of the agenda and subsequent approval of the agenda as amended.
- 11.4 Amendments to the agenda may include:
 - a. reordering of the items on the agenda;
 - b. assigning a specific time at which to address a particular agenda item; or
 - c. addition of an emergent agenda item.
- 11.5 The order of business at a council meeting shall be the order of the items on the adopted agenda.
- 11.6 After adoption of the agenda, council may alter the order of the items on the agenda, by majority vote, for convenience of the meeting.

Rules Governing Debate

- 12.1 A motion must be made by a member of council before council can debate an item before council.
- 12.2 A seconder to a motion is not required.
- 12.3 All discussion at a meeting of council shall be directed through the mayor.
- 12.4 A member of council who has made a motion may speak either in favour of, or in opposition to, the motion.
- 12.5 Unless otherwise provided by resolution, a member of council may speak only:

- a. once on any motion;
- b. once on any amendment to a motion; and 12.6 Notwithstanding 12.5:

- a. a member of council may ask questions of the administration or other member of council on any motion or amendment to a motion;
- b. a member of council may speak to answer questions put by other member of council; and
- c. a member of council who has made a motion may speak a second time to end the debate.
- d. there will be no limit on the length at which a member of council may speak.

12.7 The mayor may participate in debate on any matter before council without relinquishing the chair.

12.8 The mayor may make a motion on any matter on the agenda but before doing so the mayor must relinquish the chair to the deputy mayor until the vote on the motion has been taken.

12.9 When a member of council wishes to leave the council chambers while a meeting of council is in progress:

- a. the member of council shall await the formal acknowledgement of the mayor before leaving; and
- b. the time of the member's departure, and return, if any, shall be recorded in the minutes.
- c. for the purpose of interpreting this section, the council lounge is considered to be part of the council chambers.

12.10 If a member of council has a pecuniary interest under the Act, that member of council shall state that he/she has a pecuniary interest and the nature of the pecuniary interest and shall leave the room in which the meeting is being held.

12.11 Where a member of council has left the meeting under section 12.10:

- a. the reason for and time of the member of council's departure, and return, if any, shall be recorded in the minutes;

- b. if council amends the motion before it, council shall recess to allow the chief administrative officer to endeavour to advise the member of council who has left the meeting of the amendment so that the member of council may determine whether he/she continues to have a pecuniary interest; and
 - c. council shall not consider any other agenda item until the chief administrative officer has endeavoured to advise the member of council who left the meeting because of a pecuniary interest that there is a new agenda item before the meeting.
- 12.12 In order to ensure that quorum is not lost, the mayor may recess the meeting briefly if a member of council wishes to leave the meeting but intends to return.
- 12.13 Subject to the Act, no member of council shall leave their seat in the council chambers after a question is put to a vote until the vote is taken.
- 12.14 A councillor who is speaking may be interrupted by the mayor if:
- a. the councillor speaking is out of order; or
 - b. the matter being addressed by the councillor speaking is outside the jurisdiction of council.
- 12.15 A member of council who is speaking may only be interrupted by another councillor on:
- a. a point of privilege; or
 - b. a point of order.
- 12.16 The member of council who is speaking when a point of order or point of privilege is raised shall cease speaking immediately.
- 12.17 The mayor may grant permission:
- a. to the councillor raising the point to explain the point briefly; and
 - b. to the councillor who was speaking to respond briefly; but
- otherwise a point of order or privilege is not debatable or amendable.
- 12.18 The mayor must rule on a point of order or privilege and no vote will be taken unless there is a challenge by a councillor to the ruling.
- 12.19 The mayor may seek advice from the chief administrative officer on a point of order or privilege or to determine whether a matter is within the jurisdiction of the council.

Challenging the Ruling of the Mayor

- 13.1 Any councillor may challenge the ruling of the mayor on a point of order or privilege and state the terms of the challenge.
- 13.2 When there is a challenge to the ruling of the mayor, all further debate shall cease until the challenge has been dealt with by council.
- 13.3 If a ruling of the mayor is challenged, the mayor shall briefly state the reasons for the mayor's ruling and then put the question to council.
- 13.4 Council shall decide the challenge, by majority vote, without debate.
- 13.5 The decision of council on the challenge is final.
- 13.6 If the mayor refuses to put the challenge to council, council may request the deputy mayor to assume the chair in order that the challenge to the mayor's ruling can be put to council in accordance with the provisions of sections 13.3 to 13.5. The result of the vote is as binding as if conducted under the mayor and the mayor shall abide by the result.

MAINTAINING ORDER IN COUNCIL

Order in Council Chambers - Council

- 14.1 The mayor may call to order any councillor who is out of order.
- 14.2 A councillor who is called to order must cease talking or otherwise engaging in the activity specified by the mayor in the call to order.
- 14.3 When a councillor has been called to order but persists in breaching the order of council, the mayor may name the councillor and declare the offence.
- 14.4 The chief administrative officer shall note the offence in the minutes.
- 14.5 If a councillor who has been named:
 - a. apologizes to council and withdraws the offensive statement or action, then
 - i. that councillor may remain and continue to participate in the meeting; and

- ii. the mayor may direct that the notation of the offence be removed from the minutes; or
 - b. fails or refuses to apologize and withdraw the offensive statement or action then that councillor is automatically expelled and must leave council chambers immediately.
- 14.6 A councillor who refuses to leave the council chambers upon the order of the mayor may be removed by a peace officer.
- 14.7 No councillor shall be expelled for a period greater than the meeting that was in progress at the time of the expulsion.
- 14.8 A councillor who is called to order or named may immediately thereafter challenge the ruling of the mayor and state the terms of the challenge.
- 14.9 When there is a challenge to the ruling of the mayor, all further debate shall cease until the challenge has been dealt with by council.
- 14.10 A challenge of the mayor's ruling shall follow those procedures outlined in sections 13.3 to 13.5.

Order in Council Chambers – The Public

- 15.1 Only members of council, the chief administrative officer, and those individuals authorized by the chief administrative officer or mayor may be present on the floor of council chambers.
- 15.2 The chief administrative officer, an employee or consultant authorized by the chief administrative officer may address the council from the floor of council chambers, if recognized by the mayor.
- 15.3 A person not listed in section 15.1 may address council from the public gallery with permission of the mayor.
- 15.4 No person present in the gallery or on the floor of council chambers shall cause any disturbance, interrupt any speaker or interfere with the action of council.
- 15.5 The mayor may call to order any person on the floor or in the gallery who has created a disturbance and may expel that person from council chambers.
- 15.6 An employee or member of the public who refuses to leave council chambers upon the order of the mayor may be removed by a peace officer.

RULES FOR MOTIONS

Motions

- 16.1 A member of council may make a motion introducing any new matter if:
- a. the motion is a recommendation from a council committee;
 - b. notice of motion has been provided in accordance with section 23 of this bylaw; or
 - c. a motion is passed dispensing with notice.
- 16.2 At least three days before a regularly scheduled meeting of council, the chief administrative officer shall make all motions filed under section 16.1 available to all members of council.
- 16.3 Section 16.1 does not apply to any of the motions set out in section 16.9.
- 16.4 A motion must be made prior to any debate or vote occurring.
- 16.5 A recommendation in a report is not a motion until a member of council moves it.
- 16.6 Council shall consider only one motion at a time.
- 16.7 After a motion has been moved, it may not be withdrawn without the majority consent of council.
- 16.8 The following motions are not debatable by council:
- a. to raise a point of privilege;
 - b. to call for orders of the day;
 - c. to raise a point of order;
 - d. to withdraw a motion;
 - e. to recess or adjourn the meeting; or
 - f. to challenge a ruling of the mayor.
- 16.9 When a motion has been made and is being considered, no member of council may make any other motion except:
- a. asset out in section 16.8

- b. to refer the main motion to committee of the whole, the administration, a council committee or some other person or group for consideration;
- c. to postpone consideration of the motion;
- d. to table the motion; or
- e. to amend the motion.

16.10 Motions shall have precedence in accordance with the order that they are listed in section 16.8 and then in subsections 16.9(b), 16.9(c), 16.9(d) and 16.9(e).

16.11 If a motion is voted on by council, a member of council who voted on the prevailing side may move, at the same meeting or continuation thereof, that the vote be reconsidered, provided that the vote has not caused an irrevocable action.

16.12 If a motion fails, the same motion shall not be renewed unless:

- a. a general municipal election has been held; or
- b. one year has passed since the date that the motion was defeated.

16.13 Notwithstanding section 16.12, if a motion is defeated, a member of council may introduce a motion calling on council to renew the motion if:

- a. a two-thirds majority of council grants leave to a member of council to introduce a motion calling on council to renew the motion; or
- b. the member of council who wishes to have council renew a motion provides previous notice by setting out in writing what special or exceptional circumstances warrant further debate.

16.14 If a motion succeeds, a member of council may introduce a motion calling on council to rescind the motion or amend a motion previously adopted if:

- a. the member of council sets out in writing what special or exceptional circumstances warrant further debate; or
- b. in emergent situations, where previous notice to rescind or amend a motion previously adopted is not practical, a motion to rescind or amend a motion previously adopted shall require a two-thirds vote of members of council present at the council meeting at which the rescinding or amending motion is introduced.

- 16.15 A motion to rescind, renew or amend a motion previously adopted may not be introduced where the vote on the original motion has caused an irrevocable action.
- 16.16 Council may consider a matter in camera in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.
- 16.17 No motions may be made when council is sitting in camera except the motion to return to the public forum.
- 16.18 Before calling the vote on a motion that, if passed, would result in a requirement for an action to be completed by a specified date or within a specific amount of time, the Mayor shall consult with the Chief Administrative Officer regarding the practicality of the date specified in the motion.

Amendments to Motions

- 17.1 A member of council who moved a motion may not move an amendment to it.
- 17.2 Notwithstanding 17.1, a member of council who has moved a motion may restate the motion to include a proposed amendment if no other member of council objects.
- 17.3 Any member of council, other than the member of council who moved the main motion, may move to amend a motion.
- 17.4 The member of council who moved the main motion may move an amendment to the amendment.
- 17.5 The mayor shall allow only:
- a. one amendment to the main motion; and
 - b. one amendment to the amendment
- to be advanced and considered at a time.
- 17.6 Council must vote:
- a. on an amendment to the amendment, if any, before voting on the amendment; and
 - b. on any amendment before voting on the main motion.
- 17.7 When an amendment is on the floor, council may debate only the merits of the amendment and shall not debate the merits of the motion to which it is applied.

- 17.8 The mayor shall not put the main motion under debate to a vote until all amendments to it have been put to a vote of council.
- 17.9 Once all amendments to the main motion have been voted on, the mayor shall put forth the main motion under debate to council for a vote, incorporating the amendments that have been passed by council.

Motions to Refer

- 18.1 Any member of council may move to refer any main motion, and any pending amendments, to a council committee or the administration for investigation and report.
- 18.2 A motion to refer:
- a. is debatable;
 - b. precludes any further amendment to the main motion, until the motion to refer has been addressed by council;
 - c. shall include instructions indicating what the receiving body is to do and the date by which council requires a response; and
 - d. may be amended only as to the body to which the motion is referred and the instructions on the referral.
- 18.3 The mayor shall refuse to accept a motion to refer that would have the effect of defeating the motion to which it applies.
- 18.4 Once the body to which a resolution has been referred commences its deliberations, the body may recommend for adoption, any amendment to the resolution so referred, without regard to any amendments considered by council prior to the referral. The resolution proposed by the referral body shall be as if introduced to council for the first time, and council shall be free to consider any amendment to it.

Splitting a Motion

- 19.1 When a motion is lengthy, complicated or contains a series of independent issues dealing with different subjects, a member of council may request that the motion be split into parts so that each part may be voted upon individually.

- 19.2 A member of council who requests that a motion be split into parts may reword the parts so that the syntactical integrity of each part is maintained, but in doing so shall not change the intent of each part.
- 19.3 The chief administrative officer may, on the request of the mayor, assist with phrasing the motions that would result from a motion being split so that the motions may be dealt with most effectively by council.

Tabling Motions

- 20.1 A motion may be tabled by a majority vote of council to enable council to deal with other more pressing matters.
- 20.2 A motion to table:
- a. includes all other motions; and
 - b. takes precedence over any other motion
- connected with the motion being considered for tabling.
- 20.3 A motion that has been tabled may be raised from the table at any time by a majority vote of council.
- 20.4 If a motion to raise a motion from the table is defeated, it may only be made again after council has addressed some other matter or business.
- 20.5 When a tabled motion is raised from the table, it is brought back with all motions connected with it, exactly as it was when laid on the table.
- 20.6 A motion fails if it is not raised from the table within one year of being tabled.

Postponing Motions

- 21.1 A motion may be postponed:
- a. to later in the meeting to enable council to deal with other more pressing matters; or
 - b. to a specified time and/or date; or
 - c. until the occurrence of an event; or
 - d. indefinitely.

- 21.2 A motion to postpone:
- a. includes the motion being postponed and all connected amendments; and
 - b. takes precedence over any other motion connected with the motion being postponed.
- 21.3 A motion that has been postponed under section 21.1(a) or 21.1(d) may be considered at any time by a two-thirds majority vote of council.
- 21.4 If a motion to consider a postponed motion is defeated, it may only be made again after council has addressed some other matter or business.
- 21.5 When a motion that has been postponed is brought back to council, it is brought back with all motions connected with it, exactly as it was when postponed.
- 21.6 If a motion has been postponed to a specified time and/or date or until the occurrence of an event, the motion is automatically placed on an agenda for consideration at that time and date or upon the occurrence of the event.
- 21.7 The effect of the motion to postpone a motion indefinitely is to suppress it throughout the current council term.

Consent Agenda

- 22.1 The recommendation in the agenda report for the consent agenda portion of a meeting is moved and voted upon without debate as one item regardless of the number of reports included.
- 22.2 If a member of council wishes to debate an item included in the consent agenda, a request to exempt the item must be made before the Chair calls the question.
- 22.3 Approval of the consent agenda shall include approval of all the recommendations contained in the respective reports.
- 22.4 Council will deal with items for debate in the order that they appear on the agenda, unless otherwise decided in accordance with Section 11.
- 22.5 A motion must be made before any exempted item is discussed, debated, or the subject of questions.

Notice of Motion

- 23.1 Prior to council adjourning a regular council meeting, member of council will be given an opportunity to present a notice of motion by reading into the minutes the notice of motion and by providing the chief administrative officer with a written copy of the notice.

- a. any motion arising from an unsolicited or unscheduled presentation to Council shall be treated as a "Notice of Motion" and subject to the rules outlined in this section.

23.2 In addition to the opportunity described in section 23.1 members of council may:

- a. present a notice of motion during discussion or debate on a matter which the notice of motion pertains; or
- b. present a notice of motion by providing written notice, including by email, of the motion to all other members of council, the Chief Administrative Officer, and any other members of administration required by the Chief Administrative Officer to receive notice.
 - i. for notice of motion by email, notice will be read at the next council meeting in cases where there is a regular meeting of council within a week of notice or be advertised in a press release within one week.

23.3 A notice of motion must give sufficient detail so that the subject of the motion and any proposed action can be determined.

23.4 A notice of motion may state the date of the regular council meeting at which the motion will be included in the agenda.

23.5 If no date is provided in the notice of motion as allowed by section 23.2(a), the agenda committee will determine which council meeting agenda will include the motion for which the notice of motion was provided.

23.6 A date included in a notice of motion as per section 23.2(a), or determined by the agenda committee as per section 23.5, shall be no less than 21 days later than the date of the council meeting at which the notice of motion was provided.

23.7 A date included in a notice of motion as per section 23.2(b) shall be no less than 21 days later than the date of the next regular council meeting after the date that notice of motion was provided.

23.8 A notice of motion may be added to the agenda with less than the time outlined in section 23.6 if council passes a resolution waiving the time requirement for notice.

23.9 If a motion for which a notice of motion was provided is not moved at the meeting that was either indicated in the notice of motion or determined by the agenda committee, it will appear on the agenda for, and may be moved at any of the next two regular meetings. After the third regular meeting, it will not appear on subsequent agendas unless a new notice of motion is provided.

23.10 A notice of motion cannot be made at a special council meeting.

23.11 A motion on notice is not debatable until a member of council moves the motion.

Electronic Voting

24.1 Electronic voting technology that enables administration to display and record each motion, the names of members of council who voted for and against the motion, and the result of the vote shall be used during council meetings.

24.2 When the electronic voting technology is in operation:

- a. all members of council shall vote using the electronic voting technology, unless excused from voting by any statute; and
- b. all votes shall be displayed publicly and recorded in the minutes in accordance with the public display.

24.3 When the electronic voting technology is inoperable or unavailable, a recorded vote shall be taken manually.

RULES FOR BYLAWS

Bylaws

25.1 The chief administrative officer must review the form of each proposed bylaw to ensure that it is consistent with the form of bylaw that council may adopt from time to time.

25.2 Each proposed bylaw must include:

- a. the bylaw number assigned to it by the chief administrative officer; and
- b. a concise title.

25.3 The bylaw number and concise title of a proposed bylaw must be included on the agenda of the meeting at which the bylaw is to be introduced.

25.4 The chief administrative officer must make available a copy of the bylaw to each member of council before the first reading of the bylaw.

- 25.5 After first reading of the bylaw a member of council may move to have the bylaw read a second time.
- 25.6 Council may not give a bylaw more than two readings at a meeting unless members of council unanimously agree to consider third reading at that meeting.
- 25.7 Any amendments to the bylaw that are passed by council before the motion for third reading is passed:
- a. are deemed to have received first and second reading; and
 - b. are incorporated into the proposed bylaw.
- 25.8 The chief administrative officer may draw council's attention to an error or propose a minor change without affecting the substance of a proposed bylaw and may recommend that council consider an amendment to correct the error.
- 25.9 If amendments to the proposed bylaw have been carried, all members of council must have had an opportunity to review the full text of the bylaw as amended prior to third reading and, if necessary, the mayor shall provide a recess for the member of council to do so.
- 25.10 If any reading of a proposed bylaw fails, all previous readings are rescinded.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

- 26.1 There shall be a committee of the whole comprising all members of council.
- 26.2 The Mayor shall be chair of the Committee of the Whole unless another individual is chosen by the Mayor to act as chair. The Mayor may at any time resume the chair.
- 26.3 Council, by majority vote, may schedule a committee of the whole meeting or may resolve itself into committee of the whole.
- 26.4 Subject to the Act, committee of the whole may consider any matter that council may consider, including but not limited to detailed consideration of the following matters:
- a. the budget;
 - b. the audit;
 - c. transportation issues;
 - d. development issues;

- e. strategic planning;
- f. legislative reform;
- g. policing matters; and
- h. policy formulation.

26.5 Committee of the whole may:

- a. conduct public meetings;
- b. receive delegations and submissions;
- c. meet with other municipalities and other levels of governments; and
- d. recommend annual appointments of members of the public to council committees, other City committees and other bodies on which the City is entitled to have representation.

26.6 Council may receive briefings in committee of the whole.

26.7 In addition to the restrictions contained in section 203(2) of the Act, the committee of the whole shall not hold public hearings.

26.8 The mayor may call for a meeting of the committee of the whole at any time.

26.9 Subject to the Act, any member of council may move that council move into committee of the whole to consider any matter either at the current council meeting or at another date. Instructions to the committee of the whole may be included in this motion.

26.10 A motion to move into committee of the whole may be debated only regarding the desirability of committing the main motion but not on the main motion itself.

26.11 Quorum of committee of the whole is a majority of members of council.

26.12 In the committee of the whole, the procedures of council shall be relaxed as follows:

- a. a member of council may speak even though there is no motion on the floor, but if there is a motion on the floor a member of council shall only address that motion;
- b. a member of council may speak more than once, provided that each member of council who wishes to speak to the matter has already been permitted to do so;

- c. with the permission of the mayor, persons other than councillors may be seated at the council table and on the council floor; and
 - d. no notice need be given of any motion to be made.
 - e. the mayor may make a motion on any matter without relinquishing the chair.
- 26.13 Committee of the whole may move in camera in accordance with the Act and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.
- 26.14 No motions may be made when committee of the whole is sitting in camera in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act except motions to return to the public forum.
- 26.15 When council moves into committee of the whole within a council meeting with the intention of returning to council for a decision at the same meeting, committee of the whole is not required to vote on a recommendation to council.
- 26.16 When council moves into committee of the whole to consider a matter delegated to it by council, members of council are required to vote on a recommendation to council.
